E. Ōsawa
The evolution of the football structure for the C ₆₀ molecule: a retrospective	page 1
Discussion : H. W. Kroto, P. W. Fowler, E. Wasserman	8
David E. H. Jones
Dreams in a charcoal fire: predictions about giant fullerenes and graphite nanotubes	9
Discussion : E. Wasserman, E. J. Applewhite, H. W. Kroto, S. Iijima, R. C. Haddon, C. T. Pillinger	16
R. F. Curl
On the formation of the fullerenes	19
Discussion : R. C. Haddon	31
Wolfgang Krätschmer and Donald R. Huffman
Production and discovery of fullerites: new forms of crystalline carbon	33
Discussion : M. Jura, S. Leach	38
P. W. Fowler
Systematics of fullerenes and related clusters	39
Discussion : R. F. Curl, J. N. Murrell	51
R. C. Haddon
The fullerenes: powerful carbon-based electron acceptors	53
Discussion : R. E. Palmer, H. W. Kroto, P. A. Sermon	61
M. Jura
The carbon-bearing material in the outflows from luminous carbon-rich stars	63
Discussion : A. S. Webster, R. C. Haddon, E. Wasserman	71
C. T. Pillinger
Elemental carbon as interstellar dust	73
Discussion : H. W. Kroto, R. C. Haddon, S. Iijima, S. Leach	85
R. Taylor
The pattern of additions to fullerenes	87
Discussion : E. Wasserman, R. C. Haddon, H. W. Kroto	100

H. W. Kroto and D. R. M. Walton
Pollyynes and the formation of fullerenes	103
Discussion : D. E. H. Jones, R. C. Haddon	111
A. L. Mackay and H. Terrones
Hypothetical graphite structures with negative gaussian curvature	113
Discussion : P. W. Fowler	127
E. Wasserman
Fullerenes as an example of basic research in industry	129
Donald L. D. Caspar
Deltahedral views of fullerene polymorphism	133
T. Tarnai
Geodesic domes and fullerenes	145
Discussion : S. Iijima, J. P. Hare, P. W. Fowler	153
