

Table of Contents

Translator's Introduction .....	v
Chapter I: My Encounter with Quality Control .....	1
Getting involved in quality control; Quality control annual conference; Quality month and Q mark (Q flag); Two journals, SQC and FQC; QC circle activities; Deming prizes; QC in different industries; Study groups on sampling; My involvement with JIS and ISO; Contact with people overseas
Chapter II: Characteristics of Japanese Quality Control .....	13
A short history of total quality control; Japanese experience vs. Western experience; Characteristics of Japanese quality control
Chapter III: The Essence of Quality Control .....	43
What is quality control?; About quality; How to look at control
Chapter IV: Quality Assurance .....	73
Quality control and quality assurance; What is quality assurance?; Principles of quality assurance; Progress in quality assurance methods; How to deal with complaints when poor products are shipped; Measures to prevent recurrence
Chapter V: Total Quality Control .....	89
What is total quality control?; Advantages of total quality control; What is management?
Chapter VI: TQC Is a Thought Revolution in Management ....	103
Thought revolution; Quality first; Consumer and not producer orientation; The next process is your customer; Presentation with facts and data: use of statistical methods; Respect for humanity as management philosophy; Cross-function management, cross-function committees; Company-wide quality control and improvement in technology

Chapter VII: Do's and Don'ts for Top and Middle Management .....	121
An appeal to top managers; Misunderstanding common to top management; What must the top management do?; Roles of middle management
Chapter VIII: QC Circle Activities .....	137
QC education for foremen; Basics of QC circle activities; How to start QC circle activities; How to implement QC circle activities; Evaluation of QC circle activities; QC circle activities and supervisory functions; Why did the Zero Defect movement in the U.S. fail?; QC circle activities around the world
Chapter IX: Quality Control for Subcontracting and Purchasing .....	155
Quality control for suppliers and purchasers; Ten QC principles for vendee-vendor relations; Specifications for raw materials and parts; Distinguishing company-made parts from supplier-made parts; Selecting and nurturing a supplier; Quality assurance of purchased goods; Control of purchased inventory
Chapter X: Quality Control in Marketing: Distribution and Service Industries .....	171
Introduction; Problems connected with TQC in marketing (distribution and service); Marketing and new product development; Marketing activities and quality assurance; Selecting and nurturing a distribution system; Control of quality in marketing activities; How to start TQC in marketing divisions and distributors
Chapter XI: Quality Control Audit .....	185
What is the quality control audit?; QC audit by outsiders; Audit from within
Chapter XII: Utilization of Statistical Methods .....	197
Three categories arranged according to difficulty; Problems connected with utilization of statistical methods in industries; Statistical analysis; Statistical control; Statistical methods and technological advance
Index .....	207