

Contents

Foreword by Vladimir Belogolovsky.....	7
The Right to Confession .....	12
Historical Triad of Soviet Architecture .....	14
Avant-garde .....	16
Architecture for Stalin .....	24
Soviet Modernism .....	38
Credo of the Soviet Modernist .....	63
Origins .....	63
Function .....	65
Environment .....	69
Technology .....	72
Economics .....	77
Process .....	79
Logic .....	79
Emotion .....	81
Synthesis .....	85
A Word about the Master .....	87
The Formula of Architecture .....	90
Conditions .....	92
The Client .....	93
Fellow Architect .....	96
The Contractor .....	98
Friends and Enemies .....	100
Actual Problems .....	102
The Unique and the Standard .....	102
About the Replicable and Irreplaceable .....	105
House, Block, City .....	106

A 198936

Moscow – The Werewolf City .....	109
Moscow Center – Three Concepts .....	113
Perestroika from Start to Finish .....	118
How it Was .....	119
My Introduction to the Profession .....	123
Governmental Service .....	126
Buildings on the Embankment .....	131
Christening by Competition .....	134
Union of the Architects of the USSR .....	140
Palace of Pioneers .....	145
Zelenograd .....	161
MIET .....	169
Competitions and the Embassy .....	177
The Typical and the Individual .....	191
In Uzbekistan .....	196
About Paper and Cardboard Architecture .....	203
The Red House that became White .....	209
Where, When, and with Whom .....	226
Architecture is about Everything .....	235
A Quarter of a Century Later .....	237
P.S. The Fate of the Soviet Legacy .....	238
Index of People and Places .....	244