

TABLE OF CONTENTS

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	7
INTRODUCTION	11
 CHAPTER I.
UNFAIR TAX COMPETITION IN DOCTRINAL TERMS	21
1. Unfair tax competition and state sovereignty	21
1.1. Competition between states and state sovereignty	22
1.2. Interstate competition as a legal phenomenon	33
1.3. Tax competition and its harmfulness	36
2. Unfair tax competition and “tax havens”	49
3. Characteristics of the states and territories using unfair tax competition	58
4. Types of countries and territories practicing unfair tax competition	61
 CHAPTER II.
METHODS OF EXPLOITING UNFAIR TAX COMPETITION	66
1. General characteristics	66
2. Analysis of classic methods of exploiting unfair tax competition	69
2.1. Use of a subsidiary established in a country (territory) practicing unfair tax competition	70
2.1.1. Cyprus holding companies - directors’ remuneration and dividends	70
2.1.2. Cypriot companies as a shareholder of a Polish limited joint-stock partnership.....	77
2.1.3. Subsidiaries in the UAE.....	79
2.2. Acquisition of contractual benefits	81
2.2.1. Method of using subsidiaries located in both states-parties to a given double tax treaty.....	82
2.2.3. The indirect loan method	85

2.3. Profit transfer	86
2.3.1. Distribution of after-tax profits in the country (territory) practicing unfair tax competition	87
2.3.2. Overstatement of deductible expenses by including payments to subsidiaries located in countries (territories) with unfair tax competition	88
2.3.3. Sale of goods through a subsidiary intermediary company in a state (territory um) that uses unfair tax competition	89
2.3.4. Combination methods of profit transfer.....	89
2.4. Change of domicile	93
2.5. Summary of the analysis of classical methods of exploiting unfair tax competition	95
3. Money laundering	97
4. Conclusions of the analysis	102
 CHAPTER III.
SPECIFIC WAYS TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF UNFAIR TAX COMPETITION	105
1. The problem of fiscal burdens in the investment policy of enterprises	105
2. International cooperation and the problem of lack of legal assistance in countering unfair tax competition	108
3. Use of the phenomenon of unfair tax competition in the “legalization” of criminal capital	114
3.1. Introduction	114
3.2. The crime of money laundering in Polish law	116
3.3. Characteristics of legal systems of countries (territories) that enable money laundering	125
3.4. Money laundering through states and territories considered to practice unfair tax competition	129
4. Falsification of the problem of unfair tax competition	132
 CHAPTER IV.
ANALYSIS OF LEGISLATION AGAINST UNFAIR TAX COMPETITION	137
1. International considerations of the law against unfair tax competition	137
2. Subject and object scope of legislation against unfair tax competition	139

3. Normative limitations of the Polish law against unfair tax competition	150
3.1. Constitutional limitations of the Polish law on counteracting unfair tax competition	151
3.2. Community restrictions of the Polish law against unfair tax competition	154
4. Genesis of Polish legal regulations against unfair tax competition	159
5. Income taxes	167
5.1. General issues	167
5.2. Transfer pricing	170
5.3. Residence certificate	178
5.4. Undercapitalization	179
5.5. Double taxation agreements - international tax	195
5.6. Conclusions of the analysis	197
6. Polish agreements with and in respect of dependent territories practicing unfair tax competition	199
6.1. Agreement with the Isle of Man	199
6.2. Agreements on taxation of savings income of individuals ..	201
7. Other regulations	206
8. International cooperation in countering unfair tax competition	230

CHAPTER V.

COUNTERACTING UNFAIR TAX COMPETITION - THEORETICAL CONSIDERATIONS	250
1. Introduction	250
2. Theoretical-legal solutions of the Polish law against unfair tax competition	254
2.1. Legal definition	254
2.2. National nature and concentration of the law against unfair tax competition on the actions of the taxpayer	256
2.3. The individual and separate nature of the law against unfair tax competition in the field of personal income tax and corporate income tax	257
2.4. Circumvention of tax law	260
2.5. Absolute prohibition of transfer of funds from and to countries and territories practicing unfair tax competition in qualified form	269

2.6. The theoretical and legal regulation of the law against unfair tax competition in the field of personal income tax and corporate income tax	280
2.7. International cooperation in countering unfair tax competition	295
3. Possibilities of implementation of the proposed solutions of the law on counteracting unfair tax competition into Polish common law	297
3.1. Analysis of the proposed solutions of the Polish law against unfair tax competition in the light of the problem of harmfulness of restrictions on the freedom of capital movement and the principle of allocative neutrality of the tax system	297
3.2. Analysis of proposed solutions of the Polish law on counteracting unfair tax competition from the perspective of compliance with the Polish Constitution	303
3.3. Analysis of proposed solutions of the Polish law on counteracting unfair tax competition from the perspective of compliance with Community law	317
3.4. Assessment of the possibility of implementing the proposed solutions of the Polish law on counteracting unfair tax competition into the common law	326
SUMMARY	332
BIBLIOGRAPHY	341
ANNEXES	365
Appendix 1. List of international agreements on exchange of information in tax matters signed by countries and territories practicing unfair tax competition	365
Appendix 2. List of International Agreements on Exchange of Information in Tax Matters signed by countries and territories commonly recognized as practicing unfair tax competition, but not listed in the MF Regulations of March 28, 2018.	370
Appendix 3. Number of international agreements on exchange of information on tax matters signed by selected developed countries that do not engage in unfair tax competition with countries and territories widely considered to engage in unfair tax competition	371