

Table of contents

About the SYNERGIA Project (further referred to as: SYNERGIA)	10
A few words on the idea of the Mini-handbook of good practices	14
On the SYNERGIA Project method	18
1 What are good practices and how to use them wisely (and measure their efficacy)?	23
The broader context of good practice(s), the Project context	24
Benchmarking	31
On indicators of the effectiveness of good practice(s)	37
A checklist for good-practice implementation	44
Myths, reefs and practices	46
Additional literature for Section 1	48
2 Key areas of management and their good practices	53
→ Strategic management	54
The devising of missions, visions and strategies for units of the public administration	58
Analysing the activity of public administration in detail	64
Additional literature for the Area of Strategic Management and its practices	70
→ Management by objectives	71
Management by objectives and the assessment of outcomes in public administration	76
The financial and non-financial motivating of employees	84
Motivational Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) for the public sector	93
Additional literature for the Area of Management by objectives and its good practice(s)	102
→ Knowledge management	104
Data-based decision-making	111
The Six Steps Method	120
Decentralisation of power to as low a level as possible	129
Additional literature for the Area of Knowledge Management and its good practice(s)	137
→ Change management	139
Change in a unit of public administration	143
Speaking with power	150
Building a cooperation network and transforming an organisation's closed networks into open ones	155
Open networks of contacts	164
Additional literature for the Area of Change Management and its good practice(s)	174

→	People: team leadership and motivation	176
	Leading of change through engagement and participation	181
	The accountability ladder	190
	Change in a complex environment – more for less	198
	The in-practice devising and dissemination of a vision in a unit of public administration	207
	An urgent need to make the most of chances	215
	The Leadership Pipeline: from leading oneself to leading organisations	224
	Key topics in high-efficiency teams	230
	Strategic storytelling in an organisation	236
	A leader with a vision for the institution's development	243
	The commitment of the aware leader	252
	Additional literature for the Area of Personnel Management and its good practice(s)	258
→	Communications management and effective negotiations	261
	Defining the problem in a crisis situation	266
	The resolving of a conflict of values	278
	The science of communication in a crisis situation	289
	Stakeholder servicing adjusted to the needs of the elderly	295
	Additional literature for the Area of Communications and Negotiations	303
	Project management in the public sector	305
	Tools by which to manage projects at different stages of their life cycles	311
	The application of agile methodologies in public-sector projects	328
	Additional literature for the Area of Project Management and its good practice(s)	336
→	Process management	339
	Involving key stakeholders in processes by reference to the ecosystem concept	344
	A stakeholder-oriented approach in public-administration strategy and communication	353
	Locating the bottleneck in the process	361
	Tools streamlining process management – Six Sigma and Customer
	Experience Management	369
	Kept deadlines as an example of perfected processes in any organisation	378
	Additional literature for the area of process management and its good practice(s)	387
	Risk management	389
	Four types of meeting	393
	The PAEI Model	402
	Eliminating thinking errors in situations of risk	408
	6 principles of crisis management	415
	A complete scenario for reacting to crisis situations	425
	Additional literature for the Area of Risk Management and its good practice(s)	433

→	The application of ICT in the public sector	435
	Open databases in public administration	439
	The agile management of digitalisation of the work of an office	447
	A redeveloped website for a unit in public administration	453
	Cooperation with stakeholders in the process regulating operations of the fin-tech sector	461
	Digital documentation in public institutions	469
	Additional literature for the area of process management and its good practice(s)	476

3	Good practices – problem-solving and implementation	479
	Resolving problems as good practices are being introduced	488
	Additional literature for Section 3	492
	On SYNERGIA, management and leadership one more time, at the end	493
	List of authors of quotes used	503
	Sources of quotes	507
	About the author of this Mini-Handbook	508