

TABLE OF CONTENTS

International management seen holistically. Introductory remarks	9
The international business environment	13
The story of a certain pencil	13
Creating a global market as a political consensus, an economic model, a dynamic process and historically embedded development	15
Characteristics of globalisation: Selected economic and social phenomena	17
Measuring globalisation	23
Assessment of phenomena	24
Capital concentration: A pre-requisite or a consequence of the development of transnational corporations	29
The economic, social and market role of corporations.....	31
Areas of influence. Pioneers of innovation?	32
The mechanisms of internationalisation	39
Offshoring and a new division of labour	41
Outsourcing	45
Offshoring and theories of international expansion	47
Investment attractiveness and determinants of location decisions	50
Investors' dilemmas on emerging markets	54
Does small mean insignificant?.....	60

The significance of small and medium-sized enterprises in the global economy	60
The internationalisation of small and medium-sized enterprises.....	64
Global marketing and shaping customers.....	67
Temptations of standardisation and communication visionaries	67
Global brands and local sentiments	70
A brand as emotions and values. An advertisement as a story	72
The world as a fast food restaurant.....	78
Cultural aspects of a global market	81
The myth of cultural perspective in the analysis of international markets: China.....	85
Corruption: A morally free zone or an illegitimate norm?	89
The culture-shaping role of marketing: A brand as a message-conveying vehicle	94
Social perspectives of business internationalisation	97
Influence on societies and economies and strategic challenges for investors	98
Does popular culture play a social role?	102
From responsible business to sustainable development	107
The globalisation project, management and crisis	115
The evolution of international business and management ..	117
Case studies.....	123
Clusters: concentration, specialisation and internal connections.
A case study of the Polish footwear industry	123
Introduction.....	123
Manufacture of leather and related products industry	125
Identification of the manufacture of leather and related products cluster in Poland	125
Manufacture of leather and related products with special attention paid to the manufacture of footwear industry in Poland	128

Brawo Sp. z o.o.....	129
Conclusions.....	131
Questions.....	132
 SMEs in industrial clusters in the context of globalisation and competitiveness. A case study of the Montebelluna cluster in Italy	132
Introduction	132
The Montebelluna cluster: General characteristics.....	134
The history of the Montebelluna sportsystem cluster.....	135
Conclusions.....	138
Questions	139
 Global value chains and the effects of locating investments in host economies. A case study of the Aviation Valley cluster in Poland	140
Introduction	140
Aviation Valley cluster.....	141
The impact of FDI on Aviation Valley from a global value chain perspective	143
Conclusions.....	146
Questions	147
 Investment attractiveness and the availability of financing streams. A case study of the Polish construction sector ..	147
Introduction	147
Characteristics of the construction sector	148
Characteristics of the public procurement system in Poland.....	150
Public investments and funding streams	151
Determinants of the investment attractiveness of the construction sector in Poland.....	154
Bargaining power of suppliers	154
Bargaining power of buyers	155
Threat of new producers	156
Threat of substitution.....	157
Conclusions.....	157
Questions	158

The paradoxes of globalisation. A case study of the crisis in the construction industry in Poland.....	158
Introduction.....	158
Sources of the crisis.....	160
Course of the crisis.....	161
Consequences of the crisis.....	166
Crisis 2.0?.....	168
Conclusions.....	171
Questions.....	172
REFERENCES	173
APPENDIX	201
INDEX	205